Opening Hymn: 395 Christ is our cornerstone

Collect: Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and Govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Jer 23:1-6

Second Reading: Eph 2:11 to end

Gradual Hymn: 477 In Christ there is no East or West

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34 & 53 to end The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Offertory Hymn: 598 There's a wideness

Communion Hymn: 594 The Lord's my Shepherd

Post-Communion Prayer: Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands that have taken holy things; may the ears which have heard your word be deaf to clamour and dispute; may the tongues which have sung your praise be free from deceit; may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love shine with the light of hope; and may the bodies which have been fed with your body be refreshed with the fullness of your life; glory to you for ever.

Closing Hymn: 609 To God be the Glory

Please join us for refreshments after the 10.00 service

August Sunday evening shared services

As usual, local churches in our end of Southend are sharing evening Sunday services during August. These services are a lovely opportunity for us to worship together and meet our neighbouring Christians. The programme is below. I am in need of some kind people to offer refreshments when we host on the evening of Sunday the 11th August. Please let me know if you can help. Rev Dave
